

Chair of London Climate Change Partnership

Person Specification

Committed to the objective of making London resilient to the direct and indirect impacts of climate change, now and in the future.

Highly experienced as a leader of national or international organisations, with many years of relevant experience in the public, private, or third sectors.

Knowledgeable about climate change adaptation and resilience, with a holistic background that enables communicating across multiple issues.

Well-respected and nationally recognised as an authoritative voice on London and/or climate change.

Highly skilled and experienced in engaging with decision-makers at all levels in the public, private and third sectors.

Very experienced as a public speaker and performer in public fora, and as a spokesperson who engages with the national and international print, broadcast and online media.

Strongly embedded in networks of influential decision-makers about climate change/resilience in the public, private and third sectors, and able to make productive connections.

Very experienced at initiating and maintaining effective relationships with stakeholder organisations.

Politically aware but recognised as independent and non-partisan.

Highly experienced as a chair of large meetings with many different stakeholders.